WHO SHOULD ATTEND?

Business owners, Human Resource professionals, Recruiters, Decision makers in the hiring process, and all those who are involved or interested in veteran employee recruitment and retention.

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 10, 2016

10:00 am - 3:00 pm

MINOT STATE UNIVERSITY

Student Center
500 University Ave West
Minot, ND 58707

SUMMIT PARTICIPANTS CAN EXPECT TO:

Learn about opportunities in our region for industry and regional collaborations to tap into the talents of veterans

Share resources, tools, and practices to effectively translate veterans' skills from military to civilian terms

Provide input to expand employer-academic partner networks

Further develop veteran employees as competitive assets, and build organizational capabilities that further leverage their contributions in leadership, dedication, and ingenuity.

PANEL DISCUSSION:

"Employers are willing, but the channels are weak" - How can we translate employer interest in hiring veterans into meaningful recruitment action, and facilitate culturally-aware HR practices to ensure veterans thrive in their post-service education and career environments?

BREAKOUT SESSIONS:

"Understanding Military Skills for your Hiring Needs"

"Dispelling the Myths of Veteran Mental Health Issues"

"A-Z Put your VA educational benefits to work to expand employment placement opportunities."
